the best new stores

< MARIMEKKO, NEW YORK CITY

Marimekko's flagship store in Manhattan's Flatiron district brings the Finnish company's clothing and home furnishings together under one roof. Boldly patterned bedding, shower curtains, dinnerware, throw pillows, and fabrics are featured within the expansive space.

200 Fifth Ave., 212-843-9121; marimekko.com

V ADESSO, LOS ANGELES

This shop recently moved to a bi-level space, tripling its size. Owners Selma and Suad Ciscic handpick each item, including antiques and midcentury finds, on their travels. Their own line of furniture and lighting debuts this year.

169A N. La Brea Ave., 323-939-5800; adessoimports.com

< POLTRONA FRAU GROUP, MIAMI

Housed in a 27,000-square-foot angular structure by architect Albert R. Poza, the showroom—the first of its kind in the U.S.—carries the group's many brands: Cassina, Cappellini, Poltrona Frau, Alias, and Nemo. A rooftop terrace displays outdoor furnishings.
